“ Mary Rose was one of the most beautiful people on Earth,inside and out.She had a way of making you feel special.Having known her from McNab School thru high school,then on to FMCC.We'd laugh so much in Spanish Class.There she gave me the nickname,"Carolina Magillie" and I named her Mari Rosa.She'd often give me rides home after class when FMCC was here and there in Johnstown from Sarris Restaurant,where we'd all go for fun and snacks. I think of her often when I go by her house on Broad St.and I miss her already. Love and prayers to her family and friends. Carol Mc.Gillis (Hillabrandt)

“ I have been pondering for days what I want to say. If I wanted to say everything I felt and knew and did with Mary Rose, I would need a book the size of War & Peace. To say she was my cousin, my best friend, and more like a sister to me and my sister would just be the tip of the iceberg. I am so grateful to have had her as part of my life for 68 years, the family times, the hard and sad times, the good times. The birthday dinners with Southern Comfort Manhattans and milk and eating ice cream with a fork. The luncheons with MR and her camera (so glad to have those pictures and memories). And the chats, oh the chats on the phone that sometimes went on forever. I don't know what my life would have been like if I had not won the genetic lottery and had her as my cousin. I will miss you for the rest of my life, MR. I wish you peace and happiness and no suffering. Until we meet again. I'll love and miss you forever.

“ I couldn't possibly put words together that could come close to describing the beautiful, beautiful heart of my friend, Mary Rose. She was strong, hard-working, intelligent, funny, adorable and just overflowing with love and joy. If you knew her, just hearing her name would make your eyes light up with happiness. Many years ago she gave me a nickname “Eddie My Love” and it was the first thing she would say when we would see each other. It made me feel very special every single time she said it. She always left me feeling better.
Soon, we will have an “archive” party. You'll be will be looking down, we will be looking up – We will all be together again.
Eddie Your Love.
