“ I remember one Christmas you guys were in Syracuse with me, and Brian came downstairs for a late night snack. He chose the full jar of macadamia nuts I was going to use for a special white chocolate, macadamia nut cookie I was going to make. I was so mad. 😞 🙄 After that I would often get him his own jar of macadamia nuts for Christmas and wink at him as he opened it. I also remember he was one of the first to show up after David passed away to help me. He taught me how to use the riding mower, and gave me the confidence I needed that I could handle more than I thought. He always helped other people. That's what I remember most. Love you guys.

“ Brian was My BEST MAN at my wedding. We had a LOT of good times together after graduating highschool. My first trip to Florida with him and good friend Edward Leitt was memorable when we were single. I will always remember you.
