Donna grew up in Manhattan, NYC with her sister Judith Skwarek (Giglio). Growing up Donna enjoyed music, song, dance and theater, performing in many plays produced by The Boys Club. She loved her coffee, cartoons especially Eeyore and Rocky & Bullwinkle, jumping in puddles, pets and plants. Donna enjoyed trips to the casino with friends. Donna's eyes lit with anything sparkly.

“ I worked with Donna through the Domestic Violence as an advocate which is where i first me her. She was always a pleasure to be around, always full of smiles no matter what struggle she was facing. I also was lucky enough to become her neighbor later on in years, spent many days and nights out on the picnic table with other neighbors drinking coffee with her and Wilber. She was a busy lady, always on the go, always full of fun.
RIP Donna, God knows you deserve it, you fought long and hard to the end ❤️
My condolences to the family.
