

Doris A. Cotoia

February 13, 1928 - July 17, 2016

Doris A. Cotoia died peacefully in the care of the Dicruttalo Family in Franklin, Massachusetts on July 17th at the age of 88. Doris is survived by her children Carol Dicruttalo, Lisa Lehman, and John F. Cotoia, her ten grandchildren, her three great grandchildren, and her two siblings Helen Roller, and Julius C. Roller. She is preceded in death by her late husband, John M. Cotoia. Doris was born on February 13th, 1928 in Gloversville, NY to Elizabeth Morbach Roller and Albert Roller.

As a person, Doris loved Caroga Lake. She would dance in the upstairs dance hall at Sherman's every weekend. Her hairdresser always referred to her as "The Sweet One" and was always charged less for every visit. She was a lifelong fan of jazz, swing, and Engelbert Humperdinck. She was an excellent sketch artist. She was a caring sibling; she would sneak food to her younger brother whenever he was sent to bed without supper. She always had her sibling's backs.

As a mother, Doris was patient, creative, committed, generous, empathetic, and loving; she didn't have a mean bone in her body.

As a grandmother, Doris encouraged all extracurricular activities, no matter how hopeless they seemed. She made it to every game, competition, or concert, either personally, livestream, or sitting in the parking lot. She was a wonderful pet owner; always made sure the dog was well fed (especially with her toast). With the help of her granddaughters, she was an avid Snapchatter and Insta-Famous (follow her @doefosho).

Calling hours will be held Thursday 6-8pm at the Amico Funeral Home, 150 South Main St., Gloversville, NY where funeral services will be held Friday July 22nd at 10am. Burial will be in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Gloversville NY. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Doris's life.
