“ Madame Alpert,

Vous m’avez enseigné le français à une époque où j’étais sans doute un élève difficile. Pourtant, vous m’aviez dit que si je voulais vraiment apprendre cette langue, j’en serais capable. Aujourd’hui, je vis en Belgique et je parle le français chaque jour. Vous aviez raison.

Merci pour votre patience, votre passion et pour l’impact que vous avez eu sur ma vie.

“ You - you alone will have the stars as no one else has them. In one of the stars I shall be living. In one of them I shall be laughing. And so it will be as if all the stars were laughing, when you look at the sky at night. You - only you - will have stars that can laugh.” - Antoine de Saint Exupéry

“ I knew Feyga during the 1990s when we were both working in local school districts. I have many fond and fun memories of her enjoying interesting and meaningful conversations that were always punctuated with humor and good-natured banter. She was a lot of fun and a very kind person. She will be missed. Kathy B.

“ Ms. Alpert was the best! I can still conjugate all of my French verbs correctly because of her silly songs from French 3 at GHS. She was one of a kind!
