“ Frank is my cousin and quite a character. I always looked forward to seeing him when he and Puck came to Oklahoma to visit. Good times for all.

“ I am very sad to hear about Frank. I liked him very much and although I did not see him too often, usually at family events that brought together the Rotterdam Mercadantes, I appreciated him for being a kind, gentle and sensitive person who loved his family greatly. My Mom, (Aunt Mary Suhrada) loved him. She gets to see him now. He went straight to Heaven. He is reunited with those he loved. I am sad that I won't get to chat with him at some wedding or family event. Please accept my condolences on this sad news.

“ We will always consider ourselves blessed to have had Frank in our lives. His thoughtfulness and kindness taught us what we all could become if we look at life as Frank did.

His good works are a tribute to his mother, father, sister. & brother-in-law.

Never forgotten, forever missed.

Our heartfelt condolences, Sam and Gail Butto
