“ May God bless you with the comfort of knowing that whereas death is an enemy we are not without hope. The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. (John 5:28, 29) I look forward to seeing my dead loved ones again when Psalms 37:29 is fulfilled. The righteous will inherit the earth and dwell in it forever. I hope these thoughts make this difficult time a little easier for you.
