“ *To the Anagnostopulos family,
Please accept my condolences on the loss of Mr. Anagnostopulos. In the late 1980s, I was very fortunate to be at a few parties held at your Cherry St. home. Along with a lot of alcohol and food, there were these great mixes of the young and old, but it was as if everyone was the same age – all young and wild at heart. Mrs. Anagnostopulos with the kind of smile that loved a good time and Mr. Anagnostopulos who told me stories about the boys that made me laugh so hard, I thought I would rupture an internal organ. To this day, those were some of the best parties I have ever attended. You are all such a great family and those times are forever etched in my memories. I only wish there more.
Sincerely,
Tony Anadio*
