

Margaret Grace Eierstock

May 30, 1937 - February 26, 2026

Margaret Grace Eierstock ,88, resident of River Ridge Living Center in Amsterdam formerly of Cobleskill passed away February 26,2026 at Mountain Valley Hospice.

Margaret was born in Mineola, Long Island on May 30,1937. As a young girl she loved to sing and went on to attend school in Cobleskill and trained to be a beautician. She met and married Larry Young in 1957 and they had two children, James Young of Johnstown and Sharon (Young) Rebecca of Johnstown over their 20-year marriage.

Margaret became one of Jehovah's witnesses in 1964 and her love for God was unbreakable. She always enjoyed sharing her faith with others...she had such a love for God, so much so, that all those whose life she touched remarked on what a woman of strong faith she was. Her Bible hope of living forever on a restored earth, burned brightly in her heart and she now awaits her earthly reward.

She is survived by her children, James (Joanne) Young and Sharon (Charles) Rebecca along with her grandchildren, Jakeb (Mia) Young of Aiken, South Carolina and Cassidy (Jeff) Graves of Broadalbin.

She spent her last 6 days of life under the tender care of Mohawk Valley

Hospice. She was cared for by Amico Funeral Home and there won't be any arrangements at this time.

“ I thought about Aunt Margaret often and wondered how she was. I am truly sorry for your loss. There's a special place our hearts for our mothers. May you both continue to carry her memory in that special place in your heart. Extending my deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother and may your faith will give you strength in this sad time. With love, your cousin, Theresa xoxo
