“ Whenever I was around Mike I knew I was in for a laugh or an interesting story from his many life adventures. When he was in the military his nickname was the Hawk. If some tough guy was causing trouble they called Mike to take care of business. He was always looking out for somebody. He had stories about hiking into remote Adirondack lakes fishing for brook trout from a canoe and enjoying life. There was always discussions about who had the best pizza in town. I will miss you Mike and think about you often-- remembering you smiling I'm very grateful I had the opportunity to know you and look forward to the time we will meet again. Bucky Isaiah 40:31
