

Norma Jean Streeter

April 8, 2019

Norma Jean Streeter, 86, of Gloversville, passed away peacefully on Monday, April 8, 2019, with her loving family by her side. She is the daughter of the late Lemuel and Stella Miles Taylor. Norma was a graduate of Gloversville High School, class of 1951. Norma married Ramon Streeter on February 16, 1958; together they celebrated 56 years of marriage before Ramon's passing in 2014.

Norma will be remembered for her true passion and love of family, music and animals, especially cats. She demonstrated many talents throughout her life. She was a model, TV show singer, glove worker, receptionist at Decca Records, special education teacher assistant and retail sales associate. Norma was an accomplished piano player and she loved to sing. Norma sang in the First Presbyterian Church choir and directed the junior choir. She sang at the Christian Science Church in Gloversville. She enjoyed the theater, participating in numerous local shows including Johnstown Colonial Little Theatre,

Norma is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Mark and Rosario of Ashburn, VA; grandchildren, Matthew, Brittany and Elena; her two very close nieces who took care of her, Sharon McGillis (David) and Sheila Ambridge (Vandy); her sister-in-law, Mary Buanno; also several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, Ramon; and their daughter, Kimberly

Streeter.

Friends may call Sunday, April 14, 2019, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Amico Funeral Home, 150 South Main Street, Gloversville, where services will be held a 1 p.m. Interment will be in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Gloversville.

“ I worked with Norma at BOCES for a number of years. She was assigned to a very high maintenance classroom and she was so patient and kind to all the students as well as the classroom teacher who treated her like a second mom. I remember the clothes that she made were as gorgeous as she was. She truly was a one of a kind and a beautiful soul. She will be truly missed. Peace to her family at this difficult time
