

Orlando J. Millington

July 18, 1953 - March 7, 2024

Orlando J Millington 70 of Gloversville passed away peacefully on March 7, 2024. Born in Riparius, NY, July 18, 1953 to the late Gene and Helen Swinton Millington.

Orlando worked as a machinist for many years in the area. He enjoyed his Harley and on any given day would be out riding and enjoyed playing the keyboard and guitar in his past time, where he would sing "stand by me". A wonderful artist as well, he shared many of his paintings with friends and family. Orlando collected classic cars and trucks over the years and was a member of many car clubs.

Survived by his wife Deborah Ann Millington of Gloversville where they shared 52 years together. A true inspiration to many, also survived by his loving daughter Kristy Lozano, sons Scott (Deborah) Millington, Lloyd (Elizabeth) Millington, Martin Millington, and Calvin Sweet, brothers, Emmett, Cha, David, and Stephan Thompson, sisters, Lois Hammond, Laura Armstrong and Emmaline Thompson Nolan, several grandchildren, great grandchildren, several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Predeceased by his siblings, Michael Thompson, Virginia and Gene Millington, Vernon Bennett, Charles Armstrong and Sarah Potter.

A celebration of his life will be held on Wednesday March 13, 2024, from 4-

6PM at Amico Funeral Home, 150 South Main St, Gloversville. A private ceremony will follow later on with his family at 107 County Highway 140, St. Johnsville, NY. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Fulton Co. Regional Animal Shelter, 117 West Fulton St, Gloversville, NY 12078. Online condolences made to the family at www.amicofuneralhome.com.

“ We always seen John at family gatherings and I will always remember him for his smile. He always had a smile while listening to his kids and their stories and you could see the pride and love he had for them. And the love you could feel coming from his vibe when looking and being with Deb was priceless. My heart goes out to this family for this great loss. May you all find comfort in his memory and the ability to keep it alive. ❤️
