

Patricia (Patty) Ann Romeyn

January 10, 1930 - February 19, 2021

Patricia (Patty) Ann Romeyn, 91, passed away peacefully on Feb. 19, 2021, at Wells Nursing Home due to natural causes.

She was born January 10, 1930, in Amsterdam, NY to Ronald and Agnes (Smullen) Marsh. She worked at Mohawk Carpet Mills. She received her GED after raising eight children. She was a successful John Hancock Insurance agent and Tupperware Manager.

Patricia had eight children throughout two decades: 1949 to 1970. She loved being a devoted mother and grandmother, always putting her children's needs before her own. She enjoyed crocheting, cooking and studying the Bible. Her favorite pastime was jigsaw puzzles.

Patricia will be remembered for her enthusiasm for perfection, her love of food and cooking, her classic beauty, her impeccable style, determined spirit and above all else, her unconditional love for her family.

Patricia was predeceased by her parents; three siblings; and two sons, Merwyn Romeyn Jr. and Ronald Romeyn. She is survived by her daughter, Agnes Simonik (Steven) of Edinburg, NY; her sons, George (Karen) of Gloversville, NY, Thomas (Donna) of Johnstown, NY, John of Dallas, TX, Daniel (Jennifer) of Mayfield, NY, Darrin (Amy) of Gloversville, NY; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Patricia was a member of the Gloversville-Johnstown Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses for over 50 years. Due to the pandemic, we will be holding a virtual memorial discourse via Zoom. If you are interested in joining, please contact (518) 921-4398 for details on how to join.
