Pearl was my "other Mother" and I once found a Mother's Day card titled that for her. I grew up next door to her and always loved her and the great children she raised. I loved going next door to see her. She was beautiful and when she got tan in the summer I thought she was a movie star. My mom liked Pearl a lot and missed her when she moved to Gloversville. I lost all of my best friends, too, so I was allowed to visit and stay overnight at their new house and it was the best of times. Mom got to see Pearl and talk. I loved going to the Kateri Shrine with her also. She was truly a blessing in my life that I have never forgotten. My husband met her at St. Thomas and he has always thought her to be a wonderful, friendly woman. She lives on in her children and grandchildren. You all have my sincere sympathy.

Our condolences to the family. Mrs. Pearl was a joy to see when we moved to the neighborhood. She shared with us some of her wonderful stories. We will always remember her.

*I wished that I could have met my cousin, Pearl but I didn't know how to find her. I have a picture of her Grandmother Rose (Tuttle) Cosselman holding Hazel as a small child taken about 1906 that I wanted to share with her. I am William Fox and I will be 72 years old near the end of this year. If someone in this family would like to see the old picture please contact me at my e-mail address;
