

Randolph C. Ricci

December 6, 1958 - July 15, 2020

Randolph C. Ricci, 61 of Gloversville passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday July 15,2020 at his home. Born in Gloversville, December 6,1958, to the late Alexander and Lillian (Thomas Sr.) Quackenbush Ricci.

A lifelong resident of Gloversville he worked as a painter with his stepfather for several years; and worked at several skin mills and at the former Finkle Distributer.

Survived by his companion of 14 years Candi Rowe of Gloversville, sons, Randolph II of Fort Plain, Jeremy Ricci of Johnstown, daughter, Jennifer Darling of South Carolina, brother Joseph(Robin) Ricci Sr. of Hagaman, sisters, RoseAnn Roy of North Carolina, Donna (William)Roach and Tina (Richard Sr.) Oathout both of Gloversville, 12 grandchildren, his loving dog Buddy, several nieces, nephews, great nephews, nieces and cousins. Predeceased by his brother in law Alfred Roy.

It was his request that there be no funeral services. On line condolences can be made to www.amicofuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Randy. I am his youngest half sister. I loss touch with everyone after our father pass away. Randy would often accompany our dad when he would come out to visit me and my children. He would always make me laugh. I loved playing with Joey, Tina and Randy when we were children! I know Randy will be sorely missed.

*Love,
Christina Ricci-Mauro*

---

Christina Ricci-Mauro - July 22, 2020 at 06:42 PM