

Richard G. Cook

January 22, 1931 - February 8, 2018

Mr. Richard G. Cook, 87, of Gloversville, passed to his eternal peace on Thursday, February 8, 2018.

He was born on January 22, 1931. He proudly served in the Air Force . On leave he met Anna Savarese and they entered into a 61 year union on August 19, 1956.

He is survived by his wife, Anna (Savarese) Cook; daughters, Theresa Cook (Samuel Trance), Belinda Cook Steding (Jon Bronk); grandchildren, Ian Steding (Cristin) and Danielle Steding; sister-in-law, Matilda (Butch) Generoso; and several nieces and nephews.

His life led him down many roads and he had a special gift to gather knowledge, friendships and keen wit along those journeys. He will be remembered for his quick wit, his playful art and one liners. As we raise a beaker, play a wine glass, sing a song and hear him say goodbye with an SS! We love you beyond words.

Services will be held on Monday, February 12, 2018, at Amico Funeral Home, 150 South Main, Gloversville, from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m., where a prayer service will be held at 10:30 a.m., followed by a 11 a.m. Mass of Christian burial at Church of the Holy Spirit. Spring interment in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Johnstown.

In lieu of flowers, please make contributions to the Dementia Society of America by mail to: P.O. Box 600, Doylestown, PA 18901, or online at www.DementiaSociety.org/donate.

“ Our Family had the pleasure of meeting Dick when Dad was in for Physical Therapy this past Summer and we would always get a giggle out of Dick when Dad shared a room with him. He was a character and we enjoyed spending time with him. We will never forget his wit and his comment when we offered him mixed nuts to snack on. We never did share a Heineken but Dick always asked where it was. We are all sending our deepest sympathy to your family and know that Dick is up in heaven having a beer and cracking jokes with anyone he meets. He was truly special and we are very sorry for your loss.

To know Dick is to love him that is for sure =)
