

Robert F. "Joe" Cromer Jr.

April 22, 1961 - July 12, 2023

Robert F. Cromer Jr. "Joe" of Gloversville passed away unexpectedly at home on July 12, 2023. Robert was born on April 22, 1961, in Gloversville NY to Robert Cromer Sr. and Shirley Bates-Cromer. He was predeceased by his mother in 2020.

Robert was an avid baseball, Dallas Cowboys football fan and golf enthusiast and enjoyed both watching and playing them. Robert was employed at Antonucci's for many years up until his retirement in April of this year.

He is survived by his father Robert Cromer Sr. and his only sister Kathleen Lindsley and his two nephews, Kevin Lindsley and Aaron Thompson. Also survived by several aunts and uncles, cousins and friends that will miss him dearly.

There will be no formal funeral services at this time.

Online condolences can be made on the Amico Funeral Home website at www.amicofuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

KM

“ Bobby always had a smile for "his girls" and loved to watch our shenanigans. Many times he would show up with a flower and that grin and would sit for a drink or a heart to heart talk. Such a kind heart, you will be missed. Rest in peace Bobby💕💕

Kim Hart McClary - July 16, 2023 at 08:34 AM

MD

Bobby was a good guy! Whenever i ran into him we always talked sports.I'm saddened by this news.😞

Mick Delco - July 17, 2023 at 04:30 PM

L(

“ I was just wondering about him. Haven't seen him in many years. He was a good friend of my parents years ago and me and my first husband Craig. Always full of fun amd laughs back in the day. Always a great guy. Im so sorry to hear this news. Condolences to family and friends

Lori Western (Mackey) - July 16, 2023 at 07:05 AM

JS

“ Bobby was always a great guy. When I got married on Christmas Eve 1988 to Mike Semprevio he made sure I had a beautiful rose. He always made me smile. I will surely miss him. R.I.P my dear friend. Love you Judi Semprevio-Smith

Judi Semprevio-Smith - July 15, 2023 at 06:02 PM