“ Bobby you have always been a ball of fire from the first time I met you. The years of square dancing with you will never be forgotten! You were a wonderful grandfather to my children and great grandfather to my grand babies . Your memory will live on through them and your grand daughter who was the apple of your eye , even if you did want to name her Penelope! Fly high god gained one hell on an angel and watch over all of your grand kids❤️❤️

“ Bobby was a great father-in-law. I will miss his smile and bear hugs. Wayne thought the world of his Dad and loved playing softball and horseshoes with him. "God is making all things new" and what a day that will be when we are all together again. Big love. Sonale (affectionately called "her") Oh Poppy...love yas
