

Salvatore Charles Amico

November 20, 2019

Salvatore Charles Amico, 91, of Gansevoort NY passed away on Wednesday, November 20, 2019 at St. Mary's Hospital, Amsterdam, NY. He was born in Buffalo, NY and made his life and home in Buffalo until moving to Saratoga Springs to be closer to his family.

He proudly served with the United States Army for 4 years and was retired from the insurance business. Pops enjoyed many years of traveling with his late wife Sally, their summers in Canada, watching sports, family gatherings, music, and dancing.

Grandpa loved being with the kids. Sarah, Chris, Megan and John. He always said "I appreciate that my kids never forget me and make me a part of their lives." His last good day was being able to communicate with the four of them.

Sal is survived by Mark and Olga, Megan Bove (John); Sarah (Christopher Thompson); his sisters Claire Fullone and Mary Anne (Bruce) Hart of Buffalo; many nieces and nephews and friend Scott Bozek. He was predeceased by his parents Vincent and Jennie Ricotta Amico; his wife Sally and his brother Joseph.

Our Family would like to thank the staff of Pine View Commons and St. Mary's Hospital (St. Theresa's Hall) for their compassion, dedication and respect shown to Sal.

A Memorial Mass will take place on Tuesday, November 26th, 2019 at 11:00 AM at the Church of the Holy Spirit, Gloversville. Internment will be in Saratoga National Cemetery at a later time.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pine View Commons, 201 South Melcher Street, Johnstown, NY 12095, ATTN: Activities Director Elizabeth. On-line condolences may be made at www.amicofunealhome.com “ Sorry to hear of the passing of Sal. As one of the Portland St. kids I can still remember him stopping to join our street football game when arriving home from work. After I moved I still saw Sally & Sal sometimes shopping at the West Seneca Wegmans. They always had time to stop, say hello and give/get updates on our families. Good memories from a great couple. Rest In Peace and God Bless Sal and Sally.Pat Kelly.....
