

Susan Katherine Yost

August 5, 1952 - March 20, 2026

Susan Katherine Yost, born August 5th, 1952, suddenly passed Friday, March 20 at Nathan Littauer Hospital. She had her children and grandchildren by her side.

Susan was the oldest of four children of Mary Ellen Managun and Robert E Yost now deceased. She is survived by three siblings Robert W Yost of North Carolina, Ellen Mary Yost Blakeslee of Covington, Georgia, and Erin Yost (Rhonda) of Virginia. Susan is also survived by seven children Angelique Gowans (Nicole, Dakota, Jeremiah), James Colson Jr (Breanna and Mason), Kathy Oeser (Persephony, Zenessa, Brandon, Trenton, Ethan), Jesse Duesler, Jenny Boyd (Caydin), Joshua Boyd (Moriah and Gavin), and Jayce Colson. Persephony and Zenessa became Susan's light, pride, comfort, and best friends. She is also survived by many great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Susan graduated from Mayfield high School in 1971 and attended Fulton Montgomery Community College in the early 1990's. Susan was a homemaker most of her life and took great pride in her home, residing in Gloversville, NY.

Susan (Susyq) will always be remembered as someone who spoke her own mind, quirky sense of humor, enjoyed her own unique way of fashions (blue hair comes to mind) and loved her Barbie collection. She was carefree, enjoyed the sun, car rides, and telling stories that her children still constantly laugh at. She was stubborn but so very loved. She will be greatly missed.

There will be no calling hours per her wishes. Interment will be next to her mother in the Managun Family Plot in the Ferndale cemetery in Johnstown, New York.

“ I'm a second cousin of Susan's...My father Ford and her mother Mary Ellen were first cousins. I remember meeting her when Aunt Katherine brought over to my house when she was about 4 or 5 years old. We enjoyed talking to and about her and as they were leaving, she turned around and announced very strongly that her name was SKY! Susan Katherine Yost! We got such a laugh.

I did not have the pleasure of knowing Susan and her brothers and sister when they were older because I moved away from Gloversville...losing many relatives in the process. I'm very glad to have been shown her obituary so I know a little bit about her.

“ My sister Susan and I would talk for hours. There was just always something for us to say, even as she lay up at the infirmary, we would still just sit there and chitchat for hours. We would reminisce about our childhood and she'd always have a different story than mine. I will miss her dearly and forever until I see you again.
