

Tammy M. (Gray) Yacobucci

April 16, 1965 - November 25, 2020

Tammy M. (Gray) Yacobucci, 55 of Gloversville passed away peacefully on Wednesday November 25, 2020. Born in Gloversville, April 16, 1965, she was the daughter of the late Edwin and Doris Loucks Gray of Northville, NY.

Tammy attended Northville Central School and Fulton Montgomery Community College. After high school she put college on hold to care for her mother who was ill. She worked at Johnstown Knit and St. Thomas Leather. At the age of 25 Tammy battled and beat cancer and because of this went back to college and became a certified medical assistant. Tammy worked for Family Practice Associates of Gloversville, which later became N-L Hospital Primary Care, for nearly 20 years. In 2012 her doctors took her out of work from being severely over radiated.

She was a very loving wife, mother, nana, sister, aunt and cousin, where she loved her job of helping her patients and of being an advocate for them. Tammy loved the outdoors especially camp and water, whether it was the ocean or the lake. She was overjoyed and loved her last job being nana to Jase and Madison, and her special dogs Slugger and Izzy.

Survived by her husband Anthony R Yacobucci, whom she married on December 23, 1995, daughter Katelyn M. Holmes (Christopher) and grandson Jase Robert Bradt, son Tucker D. (Jaclyn Spraker) Yacobucci and granddaughter Madison A. Yacobucci , mother-in-law Sandra A. Yacobucci, sisters Lorrie (Jeff) Sawyer, Nancy (Herb) Wheeler, Janet (Bob) Gifford, Donna (George) Blowers, Sandy (Bill) Steele, Pat (Rich) Mancini, and Bobbie (Carl) Gray, brothers, Sonny, Dennie (Linda), Bruce and John Gray, several nieces, nephews and cousins.

“ I was so sorry to read of Tammy's passing. I knew her many years ago and we shared many times together as couples. She was a sweet and caring person and I enjoyed her company immensely. Then she became one of the nurses who treated me during dr. appointments. She was always very gentle and loving. Tammy is now among the angels in Heaven. Peace to her family. Shes finally free and happy!

Fondly,
