Her deep faith in God was always central in her life, still attending daily Mass until her recent illness. In running the Helper's Store, she was a comforting presence, always ready to help anyone in need. Viola took great pleasure in spending time with her large extended family, attending many celebrations with them over the years.

Viola will be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

Viola is survived by her nieces and nephews, George and Jeannette St. Peter, Angel and Harold Solomon, Irene and Walter Kinsley, John and Patti St. Peter, Yolanda and David Gifford, Kathy LaRowe, Joan and Robert Oliver, Nikki LaRowe and Anne; also numerous great-nieces and nephews of both families, cousins, and an extended group of wonderful lifelong friends.

“ We were so sad to hear of our dear friend Viola’s passing! Because we live abroad we didn’t hear until today. She was one of my favorite people in the world. She made everyone feel special. She was deeply loving and honoring and so much fun to be with. The world isn’t the same without her. I do miss her. I hope we will meet again in the other side. Barbara Vittucci

“ I am so sorry to hear of Viols's passing. I was away on vacation and missed the funeral. She was such a wonderful warm person. I often donated to the Community Helpers store. My daughter went there and visited her whenever she was home. She will be greatly missed. RIP Viola.

“ This women was the most kind person I have Ever met. Since I was a child I loved second hand shops and she was my first experience and example of how to do it and help people along d the tradthe way. Every year at convention time I went in for clothes for my family and we always looked great with viola's help. We all loved her. My daughter continued the tradition when I moved away. It wasn't the store after all it was "Bucci"!, She was one of a kind and will be missed. Grace and poise. Love for God and his son shown by her actions in her love for people.
